Deep Sea Dreamer: Luxury Meets Exploration

Built for Two:

Imagine diving up to 328 feet in comfort and style. Constructed entirely of steel, Deep Sea Dreamer boasts massive viewing windows and a breathtaking forward observation bubble, transforming every journey into an ocean odyssey.

Spacious Living:

When surfaced, the expansive 2,447 square foot deck offers ample space for lounging and entertaining. Inside, the two luxurious decks provide approximately 1,500 square feet of living area. This includes a spacious salon, a well-equipped kitchen, and a comfortable lounging area in the front observation bubble.

Dual Decks of Tranquility:

The Deep Sea Dreamer offers a haven of comfort across two distinct decks.

Long-Range Exploration and Submerged Serenity:

The Deep Sea Dreamer is built for extended exploration. During long voyages, it cruises just below the surface, utilizing its fixed dorsal snorkel to provide fresh air for the living areas and gensets and also expel exhaust. This submerged cruising position offers two key advantages:

- Exceptional Range: Travel vast distances with improved efficiency.
- Smooth Conditions: Enjoy a comfortable journey, gliding beneath the waves where conditions are typically calmer.

Prefer a completely submerged experience? The Deep Sea Dreamer can handle that also.

- Electric Exploration: Travel for up to 100 miles on silent, electric power, venturing deeper into the underwater world.
- Seabed Serenity: Unwind for up to seven days while remaining stationary on the ocean floor, powered by the onboard batteries.

Seamless Docking: Above or Below, You Choose

The Deep Sea Dreamer offers unmatched mooring versatility.

- Traditional Anchoring: Favor the classic surface approach with a simple anchor drop.
- Submerged Stability: For ultimate peace of mind, opt for submerged mooring. With the snorkel mast reaching the surface, the Deep Sea Dreamer remains firmly planted on the seabed, even in unsettled conditions.
